About the Seminar

Higher education in India is undergoing a metamorphosis in the light of the recommendations of National Education Policy (NEP)-2020. The goal of NEP is to revise and redefine India's education system into a dynamic, progressive, flexible and equitable education system in all aspects. It makes concerted efforts towards quality education, multidisciplinary approach, research and innovation, restructuring curriculum and pedagogy, reforming the examination process and revamping Teacher Education Programme.

The salient features of the NEP are self-reliant India, SDG4, reinforcing and boosting economy through entrepreneurship, internationalisation of higher education, digital educational structure and a new layered accreditation system.

The multiple exit and re-entry system, credit transferability across the Universities and multi-disciplinarity in the higher education system will provide more flexibility to students. Although NEP aims to bring holistic changes in the education system of India, there are substantial challenges, both qualitative and quantitative, in implementing the reforms.
